SCOTT: All right. Now, let's talk about having a life, all right? Let's talk about fun things you want to do in retirement. What are the things you want to do in retirement?

ROY: Well, I want to buy a goat.

SCOTT: Buy a goat?

ROY: That's not the walking goat. That's the '67 Pontiac GTO.

SCOTT: Wait a minute; a '67 Pontiac GTO?

PATTY: Is that in your dreams or what?

ROY: Well, yeah, it's in my dreams because . .

SCOTT: Let me interrupt just a second here . . we're dreaming right now. We're thinking about things we'd like to do. Don't think about financial constraints. Let's just think about what you'd like to do. So, a '67 GTO. What else would you guys like to do in retirement?

PATTY: We'd like to travel. Cruises; I love cruising.

SCOTT: Cruises? Let's be specific. Where would you guys like to cruise to?

PATTY: I'd like to cruise to Alaska, the Mediterranean.

ROY: We want to take the Viking cruises.

PATTY: Yeah, the Viking cruises, the river cruises. Basically, any kind of cruise.

ROY: Go to Sweden.

PATTY: Oh, yeah; Sweden is one of our biggest goals, I think.

SCOTT: Really?

ROY: My grandmother is from Sweden.

SCOTT: Oh, really?

ROY: I want to go over and see the "old country."

SCOTT: You don't do a very good Swedish accent.

ROY: No, I don't (laughing).

SCOTT: All right. So, Sweden; what else do you want to do? Where else do you want to go?

ROY: Niagara falls. We've always wanted to go up there.

PATTY: Hawaii. We want to go back to Hawaii. I don't think this time we'll cruise. We'll probably just fly if we're going from one island to the next.

SCOTT: Okay. I want to go back to this GTO. So, you want this GTO. I mean, what do you want to do with that? I mean, is this a . .

ROY: That's going to be our traveling car. I mean, you know, we want to go out, I want a year with The Beach Boys, you know. So, we'll go down Highway One in California and have the top down and music blaring.

SCOTT: Really?

ROY: I'll probably get my bald head sunburned, but, you know.

SCOTT: Sun block. So, Highway One in California, convertible GTO. That's pretty cool. That's a pretty cool idea. I like that.

ROY: I always wanted to go out there.

SCOTT: Well, I mean, just the whole thing, driving out there. So, if you're going drive to California, do that Route One, he's probably going to drag you along with him, what do you want to do along the way? I mean anything you want to do you want to see along the way?

ROY: We're going to see the Grand Canyon. We'll probably . .

SCOTT: Have you ever been to the Grand Canyon?

PATTY: No.

SCOTT: You've never been to the Grand Canyon? Seriously?

PATTY: Wait a minute; wait a minute . . . I might have done that.

SCOTT: No, no, no . . . if you've been to the Grand Canyon, you'd remember the Grand Canyon.

ROY: I was five when I was at the Grand Canyon. We went to California when I was five years old.

SCOTT: Oh, nice. Very nice.

PATTY: We need to see it again.

ROY: Yeah.

SCOTT: Okay, all right. Anything else you want to do out there?

PATTY: Las Vegas.

SCOTT: Oh, Las Vegas!

PATTY: Las Vegas. Yeah.

SCOTT: Nice.

PATTY: I've got this little gambling problem. Well, it's not a problem but it's in my blood.

SCOTT: Oh, really?

PATTY: He controls that, so.

SCOTT: Okay, so you go out there and he lets you do a little slots or something like that, or . . . ?

PATTY: See some shows.

SCOTT: See some shows? Okay.

ROY: We do like to play cards out there.

SCOTT: You said something about, I'm sorry maybe I misunderstood, a river cruise or something like that? What was that you said? Did I miss that?

ROY: Viking or river cruises, you know up the Rhine . . .

SCOTT: Oh, okay, okay; Viking. Okay, I got you. Viking Rhine cruise, yeah. That's very -- I hear a lot good things about that, a lot of good things about that.

ROY: Several of our friends have gone through it, done it, and have enjoyed it.

SCOTT: Nice, nice. Anything else you guys can think of you want to do?

PATTY: Oh, just buy stuff for the grand kids.

ROY: And we want to go up to the east coast you know, though, Vermont, through there.

PATTY: That's traveling.

ROY: Just traveling, yeah.

PATTY: But these are things I want to do for our grand kids.

SCOTT: What do you want to do with your grand kids?

PATTY: I just want to make sure they have a comfortable life.

SCOTT: What does that mean to you? Spoil them?

PATTY: Uh-huh.

SCOTT: So, what does it mean to have a comfortable life? What are you going to do for them?

A. So they don't have to really work -- well, they have work hard for their money, but if there's something extra they need help with, then I'm there to help them.

ROY: See, that's the giving portion of her.

SCOTT: Yes. Nice. Very nice.

ROY: She's sweet, but she's going to give all our hard-earned money away.

PATTY: But, fortunately, our grandkids have taken paths that will help us in the long run. One's going to be a nurse, one's going to be an orthodontist.

ROY: One is going to be a brain surgeon.

PATTY: And we have a brain surgeon.

ROY: That'll help me out.

SCOTT: (Laughing) Very nice.

ROY: Neurosurgeon, as he calls it now.

SCOTT: Neurosurgeon, okay. Very nice. You said Vermont, or something like that?

ROY: Yeah, just go up and see the autumn leaves. Everybody we've talked to that is gone up there says it's just beautiful. And we're not having the summers and the falls like we used to, color-wise. I don't know what it is I don't know if it's too dry or too wet, one or the other.

SCOTT: Nice. Very good. Well, thanks, guys. That's some pretty cool stuff.

PATTY: Yeah, I think we can fill our life with those things.

SCOTT: Very nice; very nice.
